ADDITIONAL ARRESTS IN KELLY MARIE GRAY HOMICIDE

WARRENTON – Fauquier County Sheriff's Detectives charged two additional suspects overnight related to the June 18 murder of Kelly Marie Gray in Bealeton. On Thursday, June 18, 2020, deputies responded to Gray's apartment where she was found by a family member suffering from severe trauma to the torso. The homicide investigation quickly revealed suspects.

Melody Dawn Glascock, 54, of Linden, Va., was arrested at her home early Saturday morning. She now faces a third charge of conspiracy to commit murder. Glascock is currently being held at the Fauquier County Adult Detention Center.

Two additional suspects have now been charged and taken into custody in Frederick County, Va. Working with the Frederick County Sheriff's Office, Fauquier County detectives located the two suspects overnight, they were charged early this morning as part of the on-going investigation.

James Samuel Embrey III, 20, of Stephens City, Va., is charged with conspiracy to commit murder.

Maria Dawn Embrey, 40, of Stephens City, Va., is charged with conspiracy to commit murder.

Both are being held in the Northwest Regional Jail in Winchester, Va.

It is alleged that Melody Dawn Glascock conspired with both James Embrey and Maria Embrey to commit the murder of Kelly Marie Gray.

Anyone with information about the murder of Kelly Marie Gray or information about Melody Dawn Glascock is asked to contact the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office at 540-347-3300. A caller's identity may remain anonymous.
